Answer one essay question only. You must base your answer on at least two of the Part 3 works you have studied. Answers which are not based on a discussion of at least two Part 3 works will not score high marks. Your answer should address the ways in which language and context contribute to your reading of each work.

1. Discuss the significance of the rural and/or the urban in at least two of the works you have studied.
 2. With reference to at least two of the works you have studied, analyse the techniques used by writers to evoke an emotional response in the reader.
 3. With reference to at least two of the works you have studied, show how sub-plots or secondary themes contribute to the reader's understanding and appreciation of the work as a whole.
 4. How are challenges to authority presented in at least two of the works you have studied, and what impact have such challenges had on readers or audiences?
 5. The personal history of an author can have a significant influence on the way meaning is constructed in his/her writing. Comment on specific instances of such influence in at least two of the works you have studied.
 6. Examine the presentation of male and female views of the central concerns or issues in at least two of the works you have studied, and discuss the ways in which these views differ.
